

TNG INVESTMENT & TRADING JSC (TNG)

Solid earnings amid tariff uncertainties

1Q25 – OP eroded due to higher administration costs

- In 1Q25, TNG's revenue posted to VND1,511bn (+11.6% yoy) thanks to the brighter textile & garment (T&G) export orders to key markets. The TNG's revenue growth was inline to Vietnam T&G export in 1Q25, per Vietnam customs, 1Q25's total T&G export turnover grew by 11% yoy, including exports to US: +15.1% yoy and EU : 14.2% (two primary market of TNG) (Figure 1, 2).
- In term of industrial parks segment, long-term deferred revenue has risen to VND90.8bn (vs to VND80.3bn in 4Q24). According to BOD, Son Cam 1 have leased about 13.4ha.
- However, 1Q25's gross margin (GM) sat at 15.3%, inched up by 0.21%p yoy but slightly down by 0.6% qoq. The qoq downturn in GM is attributed to (1) The higher level of labor costs in 2025, and (2) a slight upturn in raw material.
- Meanwhile, SG&A/ revenue also edged up, posting to 8% in 1Q25 (+0.3%p yoy and +0.53%p qoq). Per BOD view, administration costs increased due to increase costs of quality control.
- Financial revenue sat at VND23bn (+43% yoy) and financial expenses recorded to VND79bn (+26.7% yoy). Notably, total TNG's debt surged from VND2,700bn in 4Q24 to VND3,157bn in 1Q25, but the interest expenses remained unchanged (only VND52.4bn).
- At the bottom line, 1Q25's NPAT posed to VND43.3bn (+3.4% yoy) and net margin (NM) of 2.9%, squeezing by 1.1%p qoq.

2025F's outlook – Uncertainties

- In 2025 annual general meeting, BOD plan 2025's revenue and NPAT will likely post to VND8,100bn (+5.8% yoy) and VND340bn (+7.9% yoy). BODs are positive to achieve this plan in context of the "Reciprocal tariffs" in US market and supply uncertainties thanks to market diversification strategy and well-controlled input costs.
- In our view, we think TNG could face to more challenges if US tariff under Trump 2.0 persist longer-than-expected. Consequently:
 - o Export orders could be canceled, although TNG only set target around 26% of total T&G export revenue for the US market in 2025F, the impacts will likely be significant in TNG's revenue.
 - o TNG could share tariff burden to US importers to keep export orders.
- Additionally, the higher labor costs in 2025 also a big concern to TNG, raising risks of GM squeezing.
